

Guided Tours

ISAW offers guided tours for middle school and high school students. The tours are given by experienced graduate student lecturers and serve as an introduction to the history and art of Nubia. The tours are interactive, engaging the students through questions and discussions. Students also have the freedom to sketch the objects (only pencils are permitted in the galleries). Self-guided tours are not permitted.

Available Dates and Times

Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 9am – 11am
Tours are 45 minutes long and start promptly on the hour.
A maximum of 30 students are permitted. One chaperon for every ten students is required.

Fee

$60 flat fee
